Dear Member,

Congratulations for meeting all of the accredited graduate requirements for AAPM® Board Certification. Our Board of Standards has voted to approve your board certification. Please begin using the acronyms and qualifications on your resume and websites at this time, and we recommend that you mount these handsome member documents and credentials proudly in your office or home.

As a new AAPM® Certified Member, we hope you have the opportunity to use the AAPM® quality marks and logos on your business cards, promotional materials, in your social networks, and or resume. Many officials and top managers around the world are seeking our certifications, and we are certain that the AAPM® can help your career, salary potential, and image.

The AAPM® will continue to serve our global members through our websites with exclusive member benefits, digital toolkits, newsletters, research and press opportunities, and listing on our international registry. Please be advised that we suggest that you complete the annual 15 hours of CE continuing education and maintain continued membership of good standing with our organization so we may continue to serve you. As a note, our global society holds registered trademarks and international copyrights to protect the AAPM® certification, programs and distinctions.
