Dear Dr. R. M. Deshmukh

Editor in Chief

International Journal of Science and Research

We wish to submit a new manuscript entitled “THE BENEFITS OF TELEDENTISTRY DURING THE COVID-19 PANDEMIC: SCOPING REVIEW” for consideration by the “INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF SCIENCE AND RESEARCH”.

We confirm that this work is original and has not been published elsewhere nor is it currently under consideration for publication elsewhere.

In this paper, we report the benefits of teledentistry during the COVID-19 pandemic. This is significant because it is critical to demonstrate the benefits of teledentistry during the COVID-19 pandemic from many research articles with scoping review methods. The paper should be of interest to readers of your journal.

Given the increase in using teledentistry globally during the COVID-19 pandemic, we believe that the findings presented in our paper will appeal to specific scientists and professionals, especially dentists who subscribe to International Journal of Science and Research. Thus, our paper will allow your readers to know how many benefits of using teledentistry during the covid-19 pandemic in dentistry.

Please address all correspondence concerning this manuscript to me at caesary@trisakti.ac.id.

Thank you for your consideration of this manuscript.

Sincerely,

Caesary Cloudya Panjaitan
